Date Info Received: 8 November 1946

SUBJECT: AGENT SECURITY--GAMBIT.

1. Source reported that the latest assignment he received from his MVD case officer, Captain SKURIN, concerned the location of one Hildegard BEETZ. SKURIN stated that BEETZ was one of the outstanding RSHA operators of the war and, according to his information, was still at large in the British Zone. Preliminary checks indicated that BEETZ's family still lived in Weimar and that she herself was still registered with the police there. SKURIN suggested source should go to Weimar in the near future to make personal inquiries concerning the case.

2. We advised source that we too heard of BEETZ, and that we were in full agreement with SKURIN concerning her. As a matter of fact, we told him she was considered a war criminal by the U. S. authorities and therefore source should submit all reports concerning BEETZ to us, because if anyone does the capturing we want to be the ones. Source thought that was quite natural.

COMMENT:

Case under control, but this proves how dangerous it would have been for GAMBIT to visit Weimar, as she intended a few weeks ago. We believe FORD paid for his upkeep with this report.
